Hank Marcus, WOR Executive Director, commented; “Oneshot offers WOR a great relationship as a partner. They are a high-quality, respected, and for years have set the trend & standards for outdoor fashion. We look forward to working closely together as the new outdoor apparel line is developed and introduced into the marketplace.”

World Outdoor Racquetball

Based in Portland, OR, World Outdoor Racquetball is the governing body and organizer of outdoor play. Formed in 2004, WOR is actively expanding and further developing the sport of racquetball played at outdoor facilities throughout the world plus developing new venues for the sport through relationships with clubs, parks, schools, and events, including those that will use a newly developed portable championship court.
